ULSTER INSURANCE SERVICES ANNOUNCES INDUSTRY HONORS FOR GADALETO, MORSE AND PAESE

Ulster Insurance Services, Inc., a subsidiary of Ulster Savings Bank, is pleased to announce professional designations received by the following employees:

Steven I. Gadaletto, of New Paltz, has earned the Registered Health Underwriter® professional designation from the American College in Bryn Mawr, PA. Mr. Gadaletto, Supervisor of Ulster Insurance's Benefits Administration Center, was awarded this prestigious designation after completing highly-focused coursework and having met stringent experience and ethics requirements.

Mr. Gadaletto joined Ulster Insurance Services in 1999.

Lisa Paese, of Kerhonkson, recently earned the Certified Insurance Service Representative (CISR) designation from the Professional Insurance Agents Association (PIA). Ms. Paese, a Personal Lines Account Manager and PIA member, completed all requirements of the CISR program, which was developed by the National Alliance for Insurance Education.

Her community involvement includes service as Treasurer and New Term President of the New York Southern Tier Quarter Horse Association.

Ms. Paese joined Ulster Insurance Services in 1995.

Diana Morse, of Port Ewen, also received her CISR designation from the Professional Insurance Agents Association (PIA). Ms. Morse, an Insurance Sales Executive, provides a variety of insurance solutions to customers in Ulster, Northern Dutchess and Greene counties.

A member of the Red Hook and Rhinebeck Chambers of Commerce, she also volunteers as a firefighter at the Port Ewen Fire Department.

Ms. Morse joined Ulster Insurance Services in 1989.
