

RONALD K. MYERS JOINS ULSTER SAVINGS BANK AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Ronald K. Myers has been named Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at Ulster Savings Bank, President and CEO Lisa Cathie announced today.

Mr. Myers joins Ulster Savings Bank after serving as Senior Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer at Rondout Savings Bank since 2006. He also spent fifteen (15) years at the Mid-Hudson Valley Federal Credit Union, where he ascended to Vice President of Finance / Controller.

“Ron brings an outstanding combination of financial acumen, leadership and executive management in banking to Ulster Savings,” said Mrs. Cathie. “Our senior management team and I look forward to working with him to develop strategies and long-term planning designed to continue the bank’s long history of financial strength and stability.”

A Magna Cum Laude graduate of Siena College and Certified Public Accountant, Mr. Myers is also an Honors Graduate of the American Bankers Association’s National Graduate School of Banking. He maintains membership in a number of professional organizations, including the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA), NYS Society of CPAs and The Association for Accountants and Financial Professionals in Business.

He remains active as a volunteer with several local organizations, including service as Board President of the Saugerties Boys and Girls Club, Board Membership with the Kingston Hospital Board of Directors, Finance Committee membership with the Health Alliance of the Hudson Valley and membership with the Children’s Home of Kingston’s Audit Committee.

Mr. Myers resides in Saugerties with his wife, Maggie and their children, Viola and Reid.
