ULSTER SAVINGS BANK TO SHOWCASE DOUGLAS ROSS PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT AT WOODSTOCK BRANCH

The public is invited to Ulster Savings Bank's 62 Mill Hill Road, Woodstock branch to view their latest art exhibit featuring the landscape and nature photography of Douglas Ross. The exhibit will be on display through Wednesday, March 31st.

Mr. Ross, of Woodstock, holds a Master of Fine Arts degree from New York University's Tisch School of the Arts and is currently a student at the Center For Photography at Woodstock. He is a member of the Woodstock Artists Association (WAAM) and his work has been featured at a number of showings throughout Ulster County. His creative pursuits also include poetry, writing plays, acting and building furniture.

Ulster Savings Bank continuously features artwork from many local artists at several of its branch locations throughout the Hudson Valley.

For more information about the exhibit, please contact Tony Troccia, Woodstock Branch Manager, at (845) 679-8434, ext. 4451.
