ULSTER SAVINGS BANK TO HOST ROBERTA ROSENTHAL ART EXHIBIT AT STONE RIDGE BRANCH

The public is invited to Ulster Savings Bank’s 3857 Main Street, Stone Ridge branch to enjoy the branch’s latest exhibit, a showcase of watercolor and ink paintings by Roberta Rosenthal. The exhibit, entitled “Peaceful Nature”, will be available for public viewing through August 14th.

Ms. Rosenthal, a published author and professional artist for forty years, holds a degree in textile design from the Fashion Institute of Technology of New York. Her “Peaceful Nature” exhibit features plants, animals, birds and landscapes using watercolors with hand-ground sumi-e ink. Ms. Rosenthal’s works have been exhibited throughout New York and Connecticut and she also serves as an instructor at the New York Botanical Garden Adult Education Botanical Illustration Certificate Program, as well as her work as a lecturer and consultant. She is also the founder and owner of RSR Designs, New York.

For more information about the art exhibit, please contact Stone Ridge Branch Manager Melissa Carlile, at 687-7656, ext. 4601.
