

“Apothecary Tray” by Liza Mills

ULSTER SAVINGS BANK NOW HOSTING LIZA MILLS ART EXHIBIT AT GARDINER BRANCH

The public is invited to Ulster Savings Bank’s 2201 Route 44/55, Gardiner branch to view their latest exhibit, a showcase of paintings by local artist Liza Mills. The exhibit will be available for public viewing through Thursday, July 15th.

Ms. Mills, a New Paltz resident, holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Fine Arts and an M.A.A.S. Degree in Sculpture from the State University of New York at New Paltz. Materials of various shapes, sizes and textures serve as her artistic inspiration and she uses her perception of these materials to shape her work.

An art teacher at Temple Hill Academy in Newburgh for nine (9) years, she has spent the past few years with youth to create public works of art, recently including a number of murals with young people in Belize, Ecuador and New York.

For more information about the art exhibit, please contact Gardiner Branch Manager Kathy Delano at 255-4262, ext. 4401.
