ULSTER SAVINGS BANK TO FEATURE “CREATIVE GENES” ART EXHIBIT AT WINDHAM BRANCH

Ulster Savings Bank would like to invite the public to their 5494 Main Street, Windham branch to celebrate their latest art exhibit, titled “Creative Genes”, by Kathryn Shorts and her son, Nick Awad. The exhibit will be available for viewing at the branch through Friday, September 9th.

Ms. Shorts received art education at the School of Visual Arts in New York City, Parsons School of Design and Brooklyn Museum Art School. She works in number of mediums, including oil, pastel, photography and most recently, collage. She is currently studying oil painting and portrait drawing at the Greenwich (CT) Art Society under the tutelage of Anna Patalano and Fed Mason, respectively. Her work has been exhibited at the Bendheim Gallery and Garden Education Center in Greenwich, CT,

She is a member of the Greenwich (CT) Art Society, where she serves as Board Vice President in charge of community shows.

Photography is the preferred medium for Mr. Awad, with landscapes being his ideal subject matter. While he initially adopted digital technology to capture these images, he has recently explored traditional 35mm film photography with much success. He photographs have been featured at the Twilight Park Art Exhibition in Haines Falls, NY, as well as the Flinn Gallery and Garden Education Center in Greenwich, CT.

Mr. Awad is also a member of the Greenwich Art Society.

For more information concerning the art exhibit, please contact JoAnna Schmidt, Windham Branch Manager, at (518) 734-5315, ext. 6660.
