ULSTER SAVINGS CHARITABLE FOUNDATION PROVIDES $5,000 GRANT TO CENTER FOR CREATIVE EDUCATION

The Ulster Savings Charitable Foundation recently announced their $5,000 grant in support of the Center for Creative Education's Carnegie Library Building Capital Campaign.

In collaboration with the Kingston City School District, the Center for Creative Education (CCE) is renovating the Carnegie Library on Broadway in midtown Kingston. The capital campaign will allow CCE to provide youth with state-of-the-art training in the performing arts and arts technology.

"This project will not only have a profound impact on the quality of education received at Kingston High School, but also has the opportunity to develop skilled workers for the emerging arts technology businesses throughout the Hudson Valley," noted Michael Kelley, Ulster Savings Charitable Foundation Executive Director. "We're excited to know that our grant will assist in the Center's mission to provide high-quality arts education to children who would not otherwise have such access."
