ULSTER SAVINGS BANK TO FEATURE FRAN SUTHERLAND PAINTINGS AT GARDINER BRANCH EXHIBIT

Ulster Savings Bank invites the public to their 2201 Rt. 44/55, Gardiner branch to celebrate their latest art exhibit, a collection of paintings by local artist, Fran Sutherland. The exhibit will be available for viewing at the branch through Thursday, October 7th.

Ms. Sutherland, of Port Ewen, has enjoyed a number of creative outlets over the years, including her paintings, historic home restorations and 30-year teaching career at New Paltz High School. She continues to provide private art lessons and is an active member of the Arts Society of Kingston, Barrett Art Center in Poughkeepsie, Woodstock Artists Association and Museum and the Santa Rita Art League in Green Valley, Arizona. Her work has appeared in a number of public and private collections throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Her work reflects strong Eastern aesthetics, however, she also incorporates Western influences into her work. Recent works have displayed an emphasis on using oil and acrylic resist techniques. Her inspirations have included the Hudson Valley and Arizona's Santa Rita Mountains.
