Letter from Helen

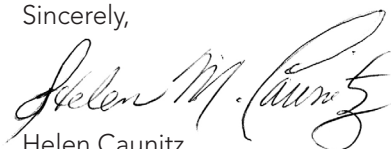

"You don't earn loyalty in a day. You earn loyalty day-by-day."—Jeffrey Gitomer

Greetings to all,

On April 12, 1851, Ulster Savings Bank, chartered by the New York State legislature, became the first savings bank in Ulster County, New York. Today, we are proud to be 168 years old. Imagine if our first customer, Severyn Bruyn could see how we've grown from that "first transaction" of $120 to our fourteen branches throughout the Hudson Valley. This is where you come in. We owe all of this to your loyalty. In Jeffrey Gitomer's words, we are happy to say we have earned your loyalty day-by-day for 61,320 days. Thank you very much.

As you are enjoying the summer, take a look at the very near future. Join "US" for some fun and share the camaraderie that this calendar of events has to offer.

Sincerely,

Helen Caunitz

Untermeyer Gardens Conservancy

Yonkers, New York

Wednesday, September 11, 2019

In 1899, Samuel Untermeyer purchased Greystone, the former estate of Samuel Tilden. In the forty-one years Untermeyer owned Greystone, he transformed the gardens and greenhouses into some of the most celebrated gardens in America. After expanding the estate through property purchases to the north and east, he hired Beaux-Arts architect Welles Bosworth to design the gardens in 1916. These gardens sprawled over 150-acres overlooking the Hudson River and were maintained by 60 gardeners and supplied by 60 greenhouses. It was open to the public on a weekly basis during the 1920s and '30s and for special events, including displays of his famous chrysanthemums and tulips. Thirty-thousand people visited it on one day in 1939. Following a 90-minute tour, we will enjoy a luncheon at X2O Restaurant located on the only turn of the century Victorian Pier still in use. Situated on the Hudson River, the restaurant offers views of the George Washington and Tappan Zee Bridges.

Historic Holiday Experience

Florence Griswold Museum
Old Lyme, Connecticut

Wednesday, December 4, 2019

We will visit the Florence Griswold Museum for a unique holiday experience. Historically accurate decorations reveal the homespun creativity and the use of surprising materials. Also, admire the painted palettes on Miss Florence's Artist Tree. Nearly 200 noted artists from across the country have donated works to this one-of-a-kind holiday icon. The idea of contemporary artists painting palettes is a nod to the museum's history as the center for the Lyme Art Colony and alludes to the door and wall panels the artists painted throughout Miss Florence's boardinghouse over a century ago. In addition, the mantels over each fireplace will be abundantly festooned with lush greens and festive ornaments that reflect the painting that hangs above.

We will shop before heading for lunch at the Griswold Inn in Essex. IF the weather cooperates, we can visit a few shops in Essex after lunch.

$105 per person. Includes transportation, tour, lunch, and gratuities. Payment is due November 4, 2019.
