

JOHN FINCH, JR. JOINS ULSTER SAVINGS BANK AS EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT / CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Ulster Savings Bank recently named John Finch, Jr. as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at their Kingston headquarters.

“We’re very excited to have John assume this new role with Ulster Savings,” said Bill Calderara, President and CEO of Ulster Savings Bank. “His previous service on our Board of Trustees has given him a solid understanding of the Bank’s operating structure as well as our mission and commitment to the community. John’s years of management experience are invaluable as we continue to grow as a community banking leader in the Hudson Valley and beyond.”

In his new role with the Bank, Mr. Finch will be responsible for oversight of the Bank’s Loan Operations, Retail Banking, Business Development and Information Technology departments.

Prior to joining Ulster Savings Bank, he served as Chief Information Officer at HealthAlliance of the Hudson Valley for the last 20 years and held additional leadership roles as well, including service as Chief Community Officer for the past decade, in which he was responsible for HealthAlliance’s community and government relations.

Mr. Finch holds a Master’s Degree in Business Administration (MBA) from Marist College and a Bachelor’s Degree in Mathematics and Computer Science from SUNY Albany.

He has been very active in the community over the years, including previous board membership with the City of Kingston Comprehensive Plan Committee, Hudson Valley Senior Residence, Ulster Performing Arts Center (UPAC), City of Kingston Planning Board, and Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Ulster County.

He resides in Port Ewen with his wife, Maureen, and their son, Matthew.

Investment, Tax, Payroll and Insurance products and services available through Ulster Insurance Services, Inc. and Ulster Financial Group, Inc., subsidiaries of Ulster Savings Bank, are NOT FDIC INSURED.
