

ULSTER SAVINGS BANK NAMES JOSE LEMUS AS NEWBURGH BRANCH MANAGER

Ulster Savings Bank recently announced the promotion of Jose Lemus to Branch Manager at the Bank's newly-expanded branch location at 1208 Route 300 in Newburgh.

Mr. Lemus, a Kingston resident, previously served as Assistant Branch Manager at the Bank's Lake Katrine branch. His responsibilities in this new role will include oversight of all day-to-day branch operations, provide support, guidance and training to branch staff, as well as achieve the branch's business development goals throughout Newburgh and surrounding areas within Orange County.

"We're excited to have Jose take on this new role at our Newburgh branch," said MaryRose Warcholak, Vice President – Branch Administration & Business Development at Ulster Savings Bank. "His dedication to providing the very best service to our customers, along with his leadership skills, made him an ideal choice for us to fill this position."

He is currently studying at SUNY Ulster and is a graduate of the Ulster Leadership Development Institute, a leadership skill development program provided by the Ulster County Regional Chamber of Commerce. He also previously served on the Ulster Literacy Association Board of Directors.

Mr. Lemus joined the Bank in 2010.
