ULSTER SAVINGS BANK TO HOST 7th ANNUAL EARTH DAY CELEBRATION AT GARDINER BRANCH

The public is invited to attend a celebration of Earth Day at Ulster Savings Bank's 2201 Rt. 44/55 (Ireland Corners), Gardiner branch on Wednesday, April 22nd from 10:30am – 2:30pm.

Refreshments will be served, including grass-fed beef hamburgers, during the celebration event. In recognition of Earth Day, the first 50 attendees will receive Colorado Blue Spruce tree saplings. Children will be able to enjoy a special arts and crafts table and pets are welcome to attend the celebration as well. Local vendors will have a number of items for sale, including locally-grown honey and other environmentally-friendly products, and much more!

The “Helping Hands Ministry Food Pantry” of St. Charles Borromeo Church in Gardiner will take donations of canned food during the branch's Earth Day celebration.

Popular local radio station Radio Woodstock 100.1FM WDST will be joining US for a live radio remote from the Gardiner branch between 11:00am – 1:00pm!

For more information about our Earth Day celebration, please contact Gardiner Branch Manager Kathy DeLano at 255-4262, ext. 4401.
