

BOB DUNCAN PAINTINGS TO BE SHOWCASED AT ULSTER SAVINGS BANK IN NEW PALTZ

Ulster Savings Bank would like to invite the public to their 226 Main Street, New Paltz branch to enjoy their latest art exhibit, a collection of paintings by Bob Duncan. The exhibit will begin on Friday, May 27th and will remain available for viewing at the branch through Wednesday, July 20th.

Mr. Duncan, a Highland resident and decorated Vietnam War veteran, paints predominantly with acrylic and ink and his exhibit will feature a variety of landscape and still-life images. An art lover since childhood, he took classes throughout high school and briefly in college before dropping out and being drafted and sent to Vietnam.

His post-Vietnam artwork was largely war-themed and resulted in several display requests, including being asked to present his work at the New York State Vietnam War Museum in Albany. For the last decade, Mr. Duncan has dedicated himself to his artwork and has continued to self-educate.

For more information concerning Mr. Duncan's exhibit, please contact Kathy DeLano, New Paltz Branch Manager, at (866) 440-0391, ext. 4201.
