

MARIAN ODENWALD JOINS ULSTER SAVINGS AS BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Ulster Savings Bank recently announced their hiring of Marian A. Odenwald as Business Development Officer at their 180 Schwenk Drive, Kingston headquarters.

Ms. Odenwald, a Lake Katrine resident, joins the Bank with over two decades of marketing and sales experience. In her new role, she will be responsible for leading the Bank's business development efforts across their 13 branches located throughout Ulster, Dutchess and Orange counties.

"Marian will be an integral part of our business development efforts as we grow throughout the Mid-Hudson Valley," said MaryRose Warcholak, Vice President / Branch Administration & Business Development at Ulster Savings Bank. "In partnership with our branch network and subsidiaries, she'll work to enhance existing customer relationships and develop new ones as well."

Ms. Odenwald is active personally and professionally in her community, including service on the Leadership Council of Raising HOPE, a women's mentoring program offered by the United Way of Ulster County, and chamber memberships in Ulster and Dutchess counties. She is also a 2014 graduate of the Ulster County Regional Chamber of Commerce's Ulster Leadership Development Institute (ULDI).

For more information about the Bank's many business products and services, please contact Ms. Odenwald at (845) 338-6322, ext. 3279 or via e-mail at modenwald@ulstersavings.com.
