ULSTER SAVINGS CHARITABLE FOUNDATION SUPPORTS THE LIBRARY AT THE AJ WILLIAMS-MYERS AFRICAN ROOTS COMMUNITY CENTER

(Kingston, NY) The Ulster Savings Charitable Foundation recently presented a $6,379 grant to support a safety and security capital improvement project at the AJ Williams-Myers African Roots Community Center, located on Gill Street in Kingston.

The library will serve Ponckhockie/Rondout area children, from infancy to high school, as well as adults. "We are pleased to help the Library become a safe and secure place to promote literacy and the transmission of history about the African roots experience here in the Hudson Valley," said John Finch, Executive Director of the Ulster Savings Charitable Foundation.
