

STEVEN DROBYSH JOINS ULSTER SAVINGS AS VICE PRESIDENT – COMMERCIAL LENDING

Ulster Savings Bank is pleased to announce that Steven D. Drobysh has joined them as Vice President – Commercial Lending.

Mr. Drobysh, a Monticello resident, will be headquartered in the Bank's 7 Coates Drive, Goshen Lending Center and will service the commercial lending needs of customers throughout Orange and Sullivan Counties. In addition, he will oversee the enhancement of Ulster Savings Bank's government-guaranteed lending offerings, including Small Business Administration (SBA) and US Dept. of Agriculture (USDA) Rural Development Guaranteed Housing Loan Programs. Prior to joining Ulster Savings Bank, Mr. Drobysh served as Senior Vice President – Commercial Lending with Empire State Bank.

"We're excited to have Steve join our Commercial Lending team," said Bill C. Calderara, President and CEO of Ulster Savings Bank. "His SBA and USDA lending experience will greatly benefit both homebuyers and small businesses throughout the Hudson Valley."

An active member of his community, Mr. Drobysh serves as a Board Member and Treasurer of the Sullivan ARC, a Board Trustee and Vice Chairman of Sullivan County Community College and as a Board Member of the People for People Fund. He has also been an active fundraiser for several causes and organizations throughout Sullivan County, including the Sullivan County Community College Foundation, Community General Hospital Foundation, and the Sullivan County Partnership for Economic Development.
