

NEW PALTZ BRANCH TO FEATURE “ANGELS FACES PORTRAITS” ART EXHIBIT BY NANCY TORRES

Ulster Savings Bank would like to invite the public to their 226 Main Street, New Paltz branch to enjoy their latest exhibit, a collection of paintings titled “Angels Faces Portraits” by Nancy Torres. The exhibit will be available for viewing between Monday, December 5th and Thursday, January 5, 2017.

Ms. Torres, a Modena resident and native of Santiago, Dominican Republic, started studying art at a young age at the “Bellas Artes” conservatory. After she and her family moved to New York City as an adolescent, her art studies continue after high school, including learning at CUNY’s Borough of Manhattan Community College (BMCC) and Herbert Lehman College in the Bronx, NY.

Her first exhibitions were in large downtown Manhattan galleries in the early 1990s. During the 2000s, her paintings and sculptures were very well-received and she has, in the last few years, dedicated time to painting portraits, which has become a passion and posed challenges as well, according to Ms. Torres.

For more information about the exhibit, please contact Kristin Bauer, New Paltz Branch Manager, at 255-5470, ext. 4201 or e-mail her at kbauer@ulstersavings.com.
